Elder financial exploitation is an ever-growing and devastating problem that not only hurts the victim, but also negatively impacts their families and the community at large. In New Hampshire, elder financial exploitation is on the rise. At the same time, we are experiencing a rapid increase in the number residents who are 60 years of age or older. The combination of these factors creates a perfect storm and the need for a comprehensive plan for responding to the financial abuse of older adults.

This regional meeting follows a state-wide, multi-sector leadership summit held on April 20th and is the next step in the process of creating a coordinated and collaborative plan for addressing elder financial exploitation in our state.
