

Justin Leavitt

From: Rocki35 [rocki35@metrocast.net]
Sent: Saturday, April 16, 2011 11:33 AM
To: recycle@gilmantonnh.org
Subject: Composting

I Read the article "Attention Gilmanton Residents - Black Gold" by Barbara Swanson in The Suncook Valley Sun. Today I read Another informative article at www.care2.com about composting. It provides a tutorial on how to get started composting and how it benefits the community.

Apartment Composting and What to Do With It
<http://www.care2.com/greenliving/apartment-composting-and-what-to-do-with-it.html>

Here are additional articles about composting:

Composting 101: A Balancing Act (Carbon to Nitrogen Ratios)
<http://www.composting101.com/c-n-ratio.html>

Composting 101: Composting Tips
<http://www.composting101.com/composting-tips.html>

Composting 101: Don't Start a Garden Without It!
<http://www.care2.com/greenliving/compost-101-dont-start-a-garden-without-it.html>

Let Worms Make Your Compost
<http://www.care2.com/greenliving/let-worms-make-your-compost-video.html>

The Science of Compost
<http://www.care2.com/greenliving/the-science-of-compost.html>

Vermicomposting: Worms, Bins and How To Get Started
<http://www.care2.com/greenliving/vermicomposting-and-vermiculture-worms-bins-and-how-to-get-started.html>

Please post all these articles on the Town of Gilmanton web site. This information will be benefit large and small households.

Thank you

Kathryn Strobe