October 2022 Update

Department activity for the month of October 2022 included 68 calls for service. Last year during the same period we saw 68 calls. Year to date call activity stands at 612 calls for service vs 532 for same period in 2022. This increase equates to a 15 % increase in calls for service.

The month of October provided to be busy with 68 calls for service.

Calls of note.

On Oct 11th units responded to a report of a vehicle in the water with subjects trapped at the boat ramp on Ridgewood. Upon arriving it was determined that a vehicle with boat trailer was submerged at the ramp. The occupants had self-extricated. They were treated on the scene.

On Oct 31st units were faced with a 10-acre woods fire located between Greely farm road and Peaked hill. A third alarm was required to contain the fire. Units were deployed on both the 31st and Nov 1st. The fire was a result of improper disposal of woodstove ash.

Several interviews for potential call personnel were conducted.

The storage space at the Corners firehouse was reorganized to accommodate a new gear room.

Respectfully submitted,

Chief J. Hempel
